

To All Singaporeans,

Our company would like to apologise for the unintentional error of our ex-staff for putting up the discrimination advertisements on his personal Facebook dated 9/July/2018 stating male candidate for the position of salesman.

The advertisement was taken down immediately.

Let us assure you that we truly value our potential Singapore candidates who may be interested in the vacancies advertised. We will ensure that such error will not be repeated in the future.

We will continue to affirm our commitment towards fair employment and support the Tripartite Guidelines on Fair Employment Practices.

Thank you again for your patience and understanding for any inconvenience caused.

Yours Sincerely,
Stanley Tan
